Sir:

A continuation to this application was filed on July 13, 2005 with authorization to charge extension fees to the Attorney's deposit account. See the attached copy of the continuation transmittal, sheet 3. At the time, a three month extension of time was required to respond to the Office Action dated January 13, 2005 in the captioned application in order to maintain co-pendency with the continuation application. The undersigned has been advised by Mr. Gamache, the attorney who filed the continuation application, that he expected the extension fee to be charged to his account due to the Petition for Extension box checked in the continuation transmittal. (This application has since been transferred to the undersigned.) To date, the extension fees have not been charged to Mr. Gamache's deposit account.

It is requested that those extension fees of $1,020 be charged, preferably to the undersigned's deposit account number 08-0380 or, in the alternative, to Mr. Gamache's deposit account as requested in the continuation transmittal. If the extension fees are not charged, then in reply to the Notice of Abandonment dated July 29, 2005, Applicant requests that the above-identified application be revived pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b). It is requested that the application be revived through July 13, 2005 to maintain co-pendency with the continuation, and that deposit account 08-0380 be charged for the Petition fee under §1.17(m) in the amount of $1,500. This application may then be abandoned. The already filed continuation serves as the required reply pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(c). The entire delay until the filing of this Petition was unintentional; it was believed that the due date had been extended.

Please charge any deficiency or credit any overpayment in the fees that may be due in this matter to Deposit Account No. 08-0380.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMILTON, BROOK, SMITH & REYNOLDS, P.C.
